Firefighters battle flames in Benton County

Richland, Wash.—Area fire crews have responded to a natural cover fire in Benton County along Harrington Road. The fire has gone to four alarms with fire crews from Benton, Franklin and Walla Walla counties assisting in the initial attack

The public is asked to stay away from the area. County and state law enforcement agencies are providing traffic control in the area.

Residents of the area should monitor the situation in the event that evacuations are called for.

The cause of the fire is unknown at this time.
